Inspecting all the horses at the sale, a jury rated the quality of their presentation according to the following criteria:

- Availability: each horse must be visible at any time of the day;
- The quality of the presentation: the horse must stand and walk in a straight line with an energetic step;
- The care of the presentation: this criterion concerns both the horse and the person presenting it.

This year, three women took the first three places in the challenge:

- Looking after VIRGINIA JOY for Gestüt Auenquelle, Lena Goedde won the first prize, taking home €500.
- Showing DICK WHITTINGTON for Yann Barberot's stable, Laura Delage took the runner-up spot, taking home €350.
- Leading up HERCULE POINT for Hugo Merienne, Léa Winzenrieth came third, taking home €150.

The ARQANA team congratulates all the accompanying staff that were present for their availability and their investment during the Arc Sale.
